BYLAWS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF SUTHERLAND SPRINGS

We adopt these Bylaws for the preservation and security of the principles of our faith, and so that this body may be governed in an orderly manner. These Bylaws will preserve the liberties the freedom of action of this body in its relation to other churches of the same faith.

I.

NAME

This body (the "Church") shall be known as the First Baptist Church of Sutherland Springs.

II.

PURPOSE

The purposes for which the Church is formed, and actions to be carried on and promoted by it, are religious worship and the promulgation of the gospel of Jesus Christ and such missionary, educational and charitable work as is usual and ordinary among churches of the Baptist denomination and to conduct such other activities and programs in furtherance of the foregoing purposes as may be carried out and conducted by a corporation organized under Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law. The Church is formed and maintained for the promotion and advancement of (a) the worship of God and the spiritual development and well-being of individuals; (b) the observation of Christian ordinances; (c) the teaching and encouragement of adherence to the Christian principles and the practice of the Christian life as revealed and taught in the Holy Bible; (d) the salvation of the lost at home and abroad; and (e) the Kingdom of Christ throughout the world.

III.

THE CHURCH COVENANT

The Church Covenant shall be as follows:

"Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines.

To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions, to educate our children religiously, and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

To walk circumspectly in the world, to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love, to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and, mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we move from this place, we will as soon as possible unity with another church of like faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word."

IV.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Statement of Faith for the Church is as follows:

"The Holy Bible is the inspired Word of God and is the basis for any statement of faith. The Church subscribes to the doctrinal statement of the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention on May 9, 1963 up to and including the 2000 revision. We band ourselves together as a body of baptized believers in Jesus Christ personally committed to sharing the Good News of salvation to mankind."

CHARACTER

POLITY

This Church is a non-profit corporation governed as a pure democracy by the members of this congregation under the leadership of the Lord who is recognized as the Head of the body. All members have the same voice and vote in matters of policies and procedures.

The Trustees (or such other member as authorized at a meeting of the membership), under the direction of the church body, is authorized to affix their signatures to all legal documents including buying, selling, mortgaging, leasing or transferring property of the Church.

The Church is a completely autonomous body, not subject to control of any other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes and sustains the obligation of mutual counsel and cooperation which is common among Baptist Churches. Insofar as is practical this Church will cooperate with and support the Association, Southern Baptists of Texas Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

DOCTRINE

This Church recognizes the Bible as its authority in matters of faith and practice. Its understanding of Christian truth as contained therein is in essential accord with the belief of the Baptist churches as indicated in the Statement of Faith herewith. We subscribe to the belief that the two ordinances of the Church are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

VI.

MEMBERSHIP

A.GENERAL

The membership of this Church shall consist of professed believers in Jesus Christ who have sympathy with and subscribe to the Faith and Practices of this Church, who have experienced believer's baptism in this Church or a Church of like faith and order, having been accepted into its fellowship by the majority of the members in a regular worship service or business meeting.

B.CANDIDACY

Any person may offer him/herself as a candidate for membership in this Church. All such candidates must be presented to the Church for membership by majority acceptance of the members present. Candidates for baptism accepted by this will become members of the Church following baptism.

Candidates may present themselves in any of the following ways:

1. By Profession of Faith

By profession of faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, followed with baptism by immersion by the Pastor or the person selected by the Church or its Pastor to administer the ordinance of baptism.

2. By Letter

By promise of letter from a Baptist Church of like faith and order.

3. By Personal Statement

By restoration upon a statement of prior conversion experience and baptism in a church of like faith and order when no letter is obtainable.

4. By Proxy

When the person desiring membership cannot, for health or other valid reasons, present themselves in person, they may be presented to the Church by the Pastor, a family member, or a close friend.

5.Reinstatement (following a Dismissal pursuant to Bylaws, Article VI{E){3))

By reinstatement in the event a person has been excluded from active membership for cause deemed sufficient by the Church, provided the person gives evidence to the Church of his/her repentance or change in conditions necessary for active membership.

Should there be any dissent as to any candidate for reinstatement, such dissent shall be referred to the Pastor and the Trustees for investigation and the making of a recommendation to the Church within (30) thirty days. An affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting shall be required to accept such a candidate for membership.

6.Watch Care

Watch Care affiliation does not result in Church membership, nor does it allow the person to participate in the business affairs of the Church. A person who wishes to identify with this Church in worship and fellowship, may petition to be a Watch Care participant. The ministerial staff, Trustees or deacons or a Committee of the Church charged with serving the needs of the community may make a recommendation to the Church family whether such person should be included in Watch Care for the final approval following an investigation of the circumstances.

C.VOTING RIGHTS

Every member of the Church is entitled to vote on all issues and elections and on all questions before the Church at a duly called business meeting. A person must be present to vote. Each member present may cast one (1) vote on each matter submitted to the Church for approval and may not vote by proxy.

D.MEMBERSHIP ROLLS

The Clerk shall keep membership rolls listing all then current members of the Church. The initial members of the Church shall be all members previously members of the First Baptist Church of Sutherland Springs, an unincorporated association and the Clerks shall take all action necessary to record the initial membership of the Church on its records and the records of any Association or Convention which maintains records regarding membership of the Church.

E.DISSMISSAL OF MEMBERS

Membership shall be terminated in the following ways:

1. By Transfer of Letter

Any member in good standing with the Church shall be granted to any Baptist church of like faith and order upon request for the letter from said church. Since church letters are not individual property, it is not policy of this Church to grant such letters to individuals.

2. By Death

At the time our Heavenly Father calls any member of the Church home, that members name will be removed from the Church rolls, such information being permanently filed in the deceased file.

3. By Exclusion

In the matter of discipline, the Church shall follow the general guidelines in Matthew 18:15-20. The exclusion of a candidate for membership or the termination of membership will be a rare and serious occurrence.

Should a member be guilty of conduct unbecoming of a Christian, or become a disruptive or divisive influence in the Church and its good name by reason of immoral conduct, unchristian acts or by persistent breach of the Covenant vows set forth in Article III, thus becoming an offense to the Church and its good name, the member may be disciplined by the Church to the extent of termination of membership in the following manner:

If, upon investigation, a member appears guilty of any of the above offenses or other serious breaches of conduct, the Pastor and the Trustees will take every reasonable measure to resolve the issue with the member. If prayerful efforts fail to result in resolution, the chairman of the deacons will notify the member of an opportunity for a hearing before the deacon body (or if no deacons have been appointed any Trustee may notify the member of an opportunity for a hearing before the Trustees). If reconciliation efforts fail, the deacons may elect to recommend termination of membership. An affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the members will declare the offender to be no longer in membership. Following termination of the membership, the Church Clerk shall notify the former member in writing of the termination at the last known address for such former member on the Church rolls.

4. By Inactivity

To ensure more accuracy in record keeping, any person that, to the knowledge of the Pastor and/or the Clerk, has not attended Church functions for a period of one year or more, shall be contacted to determine intent and then, failing affirmation that such member desires to maintain his or her membership, be removed from the Church rolls. Additionally, a member shall be removed from the Church rolls upon reasonable evidence that a member has united with another church.

5. By Withdrawal

A member's written or constructive request to withdraw membership shall result in removal from the Church rolls.

VII.

CHURCH TRUSTEES, STAFF AND OFFICERS

All officers must be members of the Church and elected by the Church. An officer should be one vitally interested in all affairs of the Church, and an active participant of the same. Officer selection will be made in consultation with the Pastor.

The Church body is the final approving authority on the appointment, ordination, and termination of Church Officers. If requested at the meeting, this will be done by confidential "paper ballots".

A.PASTOR

He is the spiritual leader and chief administrator of the Church. Through his God-inspired leadership the overall progress of the Church will be manifested.

He shall meet the qualifications set forth in 1 Timothy 2.

The Pastor shall work with the Church, the Church Trustees and officers, and his staff members, leading them to achieve the Church's objectives and purpose. Likewise, he shall proclaim the Gospel to the believers and unbelievers and minister to the spiritual needs of the community. 4.Policies and other job descriptions

Specific policies and job descriptions, if adopted, for all personnel will be kept in the Church's official records.

C. TRUSTEES

1. Number

The current number of Trustees is three (3). The number of Trustees may be increased or decreased by a vote of a majority of the members at a duly called meeting; provided, no reduction may reduce the number of Trustees to less than three (3).

2. Election and Removal

a. The initial Trustees shall be as set forth in the Certificate of Formation for the Church. Thereafter, if a Nominating Committee has been constituted, Trustees shall be selected, interviewed, and enlisted by the Nominating Committee and, in the absence of action by a Nominating Committee, nominated by the members at a business meeting of the Church. Trustees shall be elected by a majority of the members of the Church present at a business meeting of the Church. If for any reason an election does not occur within a thirteen (13) month period, the members of the Church may request that a meeting be held for the purpose of nominating and electing Trustees and the then current Trustees shall continue to serve until their successors are duly elected.

b. Any Trustee may be removed by the Church's members, with or without cause, upon a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present at a meeting of the members which has been announced from the pulpit for the prior two (2) Sundays.

c. If a vacancy occurs, the Nominating Committee will nominate a replacement immediately, however, if there is no Nominating Committee or the Committee fails to act, the members of the Church may request that a meeting be held for the purpose of nominating and electing a Trustee to fill the vacancy.

d. No person may serve as a Trustee while serving as an employee of the Church.

3. Actions. The act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a majority of the Trustees are present shall be the act of the Trustees, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these Bylaws. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of Trustees, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of Trustees, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the Trustees.

4. Duties

a. The Trustees shall be entrusted with the fiduciary and management responsibility for the affairs of the Church.

b. The Trustees are responsible to the Church for serving as legal representatives of the Church. They should be knowledgeable of legal matters and have a good understanding of general business procedure, including legal transactions involving the sale, mortgage, purchase, and rental of property.

c. Trustees act as directed by the Church. Trustees cannot act on their own initiative but as the Church instructs. It is mandatory that Church action authorizing the Trustees signing a particular legal document be recorded in the official minutes of the Church.

d. Trustees will sign as Trustees of the Church, not individually.

D. DEACONS

If it is determined by the members that a deacon body should be constituted the following shall apply:

1. Scriptural requirements: Acts 6:1-8, I Timothy 3:8-12.

2. Church requirements:

a. Demonstrate mental and spiritual maturity.

b. Be willing to fill the office of deacon in the spirit of Christ and remain a humble servant of the Church.

c. Be found faithful for a least one year in this Church prior to his election and ordination or be found faithful for a period of (6) six months prior to election if he has been ordained by another Baptist Church.

d. Undergo a period of training. This is to include a study of the book, "The Ministry of the Deacon", or other books or resources as determined by the Pastor and deacon body.

3. Election Procedures

a. There shall be a strong emphasis from the pulpit and in the Church bulletin several weeks prior to the election of deacons. The purpose of this is to inform the congregation that a nomination of deacons is imminent and to stress the qualities and qualifications of a deacon.

b. A deacon election committee, as initially selected by the Trustees and, if there are deacons then currently serving, as selected by the deacon body, is responsible for the deacon review and election process. The deacon election committee (or Trustees in the absence of a committee), along with the Pastor, shall meet periodically throughout the year to compile a list of nominees. Any member of the Church may recommend persons to the Pastor, any Trustee, or the deacon election committee as possible nominees. They shall base their decisions on the spiritual qualifications described in the scriptures and the nominee's willingness to serve. If a nominee is accepted by the Pastor, the Trustees or a deacon election committee, the prospective deacon and his wife shall be interviewed by the Pastor and members of the deacon election committee (or in the absence of a committee, the Trustees). Those meeting the deacon qualifications will then be recommended to the congregation.

c. All deacons currently serving will be given the opportunity to serve for another year. Likewise ordained deacons who have moved into the Church from another Baptist church and have met the (6) six-month membership requirement will be interviewed by the Trustees or, if in existence, the deacon election committee. The interview will include a review of the qualifications of a deacon, the obligations of deacon service in the Church, and a determination of the candidate's willingness to serve.

d. When the number of ordained deacons has been determined, the deacon election committee (or Trustees in their absence), in consultation with the Pastor and the Chairman of the deacons, if any, will specify the desired additional number of deacons to be elected for the following year. The total participating deacons will not exceed one deacon for each (7) seven resident Church families.

e. From this list of nominees recommended by the deacon election committee (or if none in existence, the Trustees), the membership shall vote by secret ballot following the worship service on the designated Sunday. Members of the Church will be asked to vote approval or disapproval of each nominee. Candidates must receive a 90% approval vote of those members present at the worship service to qualify for ordination.

f. Deacon ordination shall be held within two (2) months following approval by the members of the Church.

g. Special elections and ordinations may be called as deemed necessary by the deacon election committee (or in the absence of a committee, the Trustees) with the approval of the congregation.
